To: Shoshone Point Permit Applicant

Thank you for contacting Grand Canyon National Park regarding reserving Shoshone Point.

Enclosed is a packet of information along with a Special Use Permit application for reserving Shoshone Point at the Grand Canyon. Please review the information carefully. Shoshone Point is only open May 1st through October 15th each year for events.

To reserve Shoshone, please return the Special Use Permit application along with the permit fee to the address above. Permit fees are $25.00 for group size of 1 to 24, $50.00 for group size of 25 to 49, and $100.00 for group size of 50 to 85 through August 14, 2006. Effective August 15, 2006, the permit fee for Shoshone is $225.00 regardless of group size. Please indicate on your application your first and second choices for dates and times, as all sites are reserved on a first come, first served basis. Please be specific about the type of event that you plan to hold.

Once your application and fee are received I will reserve your date.

I will return a permit to you for your signature. Once you have signed the permit and returned it to me, it will be signed by an authorized park representative and only then will it become valid. The completed permit will be sent back to you for your use. The total permit processing time takes two to four weeks.

Please call me at the number above if you have any questions.
